Sixth Sunday of Easter

Sr. Karen Wilhelmy, CSJ

As we enter into the ending of the Easter Season we know that the Church will celebrate the Feast of the Ascension of Jesus into Heaven and Pentecost. Why do we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension? In today's Gospel reading we hear the words:

"In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live."

Suppose you had these words addressed to you personally by Jesus. What would they challenge you to think?

Jesus speaks these words before he dies. He tells his disciples that they are going to experience something that others will not. He reminds them of this relationship.

As believers of this century, we come to the conclusion that this tells us that we will meet the Lord in his followers. Our challenge is to recognize him in those where we find no resemblance.

We have celebrated the Easter Season and listened to the various post-resurrection accounts. Think about the story of the two disciples en route to Emmaus. Jesus walks with them, and talks with them, and explains all sorts of things to them. Yet they don't recognize him when he appears to them. Only when he does something that they have already experienced do they know who he is and then he disappears from their sight. They provide the appropriate response which each of us is called to make: they return to Jerusalem to tell the others that they have seen the Lord.

We need to remember that Jesus appeared to them and they did not recognize Him. He didn't look like they expected and therefore they didn't know Him.

When do I not recognize Him? Is it my family members because I know them as just that and don't recognize the Lord in them? Is it like my neighbors, because they look more like my family members? Is it like foreigners who do not resemble anyone I know? Or, is it when I do not follow my conscience and am acting in a manner contrary to my faith?

This week I need to look in a conscious manner for the Lord in others around me. I might just be surprised to meet and recognize Him!

Sexto Domingo de Pascua

Hna. Karen Wilhelmy, CSJ

Mientras nos acercamos al final del tiempo Pascual, sabemos que la iglesia celebrara la Festividad de la Asunción de Jesús a los Cielos y el Pentecostés. ¿Por qué celebramos la Festividad de la Asunción? En las lecturas del Evangelio de hoy, escuchamos estas palabras:

"Todavía un poco, y el mundo ya no Me vera más pero, vosotros Me veréis; porque Yo vivo, y vosotros también viviréis."

Supón que estas palabras fueron dirigidas a ti personalmente por Jesús. ¿Qué te retarían a pensar?

Jesús dice estas palabras antes de morir. El les dice a sus discípulos que experimentaran algo que los demás no lo harán. El les recuerda de esta relación.

Como creyentes de este siglo, llegamos a la conclusión que nos afirma que encontraremos al Señor en sus seguidores. Entonces, nuestro reto es reconocerlo en aquellos en los que no encontramos parecido..

Hemos celebrado el tiempo de Pascua y hemos escuchado varias versiones de post-resurrección. Analiza un poco la historia sobre los dos discípulos en camino a Emaús. Jesús camina con ellos y conversa con ellos y les explica toda clases de cosas. Sin embargo, no lo reconocen cuando se aparece a ellos. Los discípulos se dan cuenta de quién es Jesús solamente cuando él hace cosas que ellos ya experimentaron, pero luego Jesús desaparece de su vista. Ellos proveen la respuesta apropiada, como la que todos estamos llamados hacer: ellos regresan a Jerusalén para anunciar a los demás que han visto al Señor.

Debemos recordar que Jesús se les apareció y ellos no lo reconocieron. Jesús no parecía como ellos esperaban que se viera y por ello no lo reconocieron.

¿Cuándo dejo yo de reconocer a Jesús? ¿Es en los miembros de mi familia a los cuales ya conozco y por esa razón no veo al Señor en ellos? ¿Es en mis vecinos que parecen ya miembros de mi familia? ¿Es en algunos extranjeros a quien no encuentro parecido a ninguno que conozco? ¿O es cuando no obedezco a mi conciencia y actúo de una manera opuesta a mi fe?

Esta semana necesito ver de forma consciente a Jesús en aquellos que me rodean. ¡Es probable que me sorprenda encontrarlo y reconocerlo!

Ensuring Your Child's School Is Safe

Every teacher, coach, and volunteer who works with children in the Los Angeles Archdiocese's parishes and schools must have a background check before he or she is permitted to work in any school or parish-related job or activity that involves contact with children. But many of our children attend non-Catholic private or public schools. What steps do these schools? Talk with school administrators and find out what steps they take to protect children from harm. Suggest that they review other abuse prevention programs to ensure that their policies and practices are up to date. And demand that all employees and volunteers who work in the school be properly screened, including background checks, before they are allowed to be near your children. For more information, please call the Archdiocesan Safeguard the Children Office (213) 637-7227. For more information, please call the Assistance Ministry Office at (213) 637-7650.

¿Sabia Usted?

Asegúrese Que La Escuela de Sus Hijos Sea Segura

Todo maestro, entrenador, y voluntario que trabaje con niños en parroquias y escuelas de la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles tendrá que pasar por una investigación de huellas digitales antes de que se les permita trabajar en cualquier trabajo que involucre contacto con niños. Pero muchos de maestros niños asisten escuelas publicas. Que pasos toman estas escuelas? Hable con los administradores de la escuela y averigüe que medidas toman para proteger a los niños contra cualquier peligro. Sugíerale que se informen sobre otros programas de prevención para garantizar que sus propias pólizas y practicas estén actualizadas. Y exija que todos los empleados y voluntarios que trabaja en las escuela hayan pasado por una investigación de huellas digitales antes de que se les permite estar cerca de sus hijos.
